

U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Norfolk District

Joseph R. Loschi District Counsel

As District Counsel, Mr. Loschi is responsible for and provides leadership in the development of all legal decisions/opinions affecting Norfolk District. Mr. Loschi is also the District Ethics Officer, Procurement Fraud Advisor, and FOIA Officer. In addition to serving as District Counsel, Mr. Loschi has served as Deputy District Commander, Acting Chief of SSD, BRD, and R2C2.

Education

Mr. Loschi graduated from Boston College in 1956 where he received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Biology/Chemistry and from Suffolk University Law School in 1966 where he earned his J.D. He has also attended Harvard University where he received a certificate in Technical Report Writing.

Experience

Prior to joining USACE, as a Real Estate attorney in 1969, Mr. Loschi was employed as a Research Biologist for Arthur D. Little, Inc., and Claims Supervisor for Travelers Insurance Company. During his tenure with Travelers, he was also a partner in a law firm. Mr. Loschi has been an active instructor for the USACE Prospect Courses where he currently teaches in the Construction Contract Administration Course. Mr. Loschi is also an adjunct professor with Troy University and Tidewater Community College.

Awards

Mr. Loschi's awards include a Commanders Award for Civilian Service, Bronze de-Fleury Medal, Exceptional Performance Awards 1990-2005, and the National Instructor of the Year Award for five years from Para-Legal Association of America.

Memberships

Mr. Loschi is a member of the Virginia and Massachusetts Bars, American Bar Association, The Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals, The Knights of Columbus, and a Notary.

Personal

Mr. Loschi was born in Medford, Massachusetts, is a widower with four children and five grandchildren. He is active in his church, and his hobbies include furniture refurbishing and walking. He spends many hours speaking before business and professional organizations.